

What do Greece, Australia,
Japan, Spain and the United Kingdom have in common with Texas?

They all hosted the World Congress on Information Technology (WCIT)
Over the last 24 years and...

.....Now the world is coming to Texas in 2006.

The 15th World Congress on Information Technology

May 1-5 • 2006

Austin Convention Center • Austin • TX • USA

Pre-Congress Business Forum: May 1-2, 2004

World Congress: May 3-5, 2004

Texas is Synonymous with Technology

- Austin is proficient in semiconductor design and software innovation.
- San Antonio and Houston are recognized as leaders in biotechnology and medical research.
 - Houston is the world's energy capital and aerospace leader.
 - Dallas is the Telecom Corridor.
- El Paso and the Lower Rio Grande Valley are home to top call center operations.
 - Texas is the Information Technology Portal to Latin America.

Austin is the Capital of Innovation

- Austin is the seat of Texas government.
- Austin is an educational Mecca with seven area universities.
 - Austin has a state-of-the-art international airport.
 - Austin is the live music capital of the world.
- Austin is cultural diverse and has great weather and extensive recreational opportunities.

Come to Austin, Texas in May 2006!

